

THE RICH YOUNG RULER

♩ = 120, sweetly

1. I ask'd the Tea - cher, "how can I en - ter e - ter - nal life?
 2. He said, "there is one thing you lack, one thing you've yet to do:
 3. "What does it pro - fit you to gain the world and lose your life?
 4. Must I sell my in - her - it - ance if I'm to save my heart?
 5. My wealth won't leave me sa - tis - fied; I need more than this gold.
 6. How vast a trea - sure I pos - sess in Je - sus Christ my Lord!
 7. Should need a - rise, I'll look to Christ, the per - fect gift of God!

1. "I've done all that I know to do but still I ache in - side."
 2. "Sell all you have 'till all that's left is not a 'what' but 'who.'
 3. "In - stead, 'rich' ru - ler, you must find what will not fade with time."
 4. Do I ex - change the plans I have or do I just de - part?
 5. I'll seek in - stead God's price - less gifts o'er all the earth could hold.
 6. His blood is my in - her - it - ance; His life is my re - ward.
 7. The one who came to give His life gives rich - es borne of love.